Take Notice, I have provided an affidavit documenting my reasonable excuse to obstruct the designated officer, or another person or a detection animal helping a designated officer entering my private property, as in my right, as detailed in the Biosecurity Act 2014 (Queensland), Section 336 Obstructing a designated officer.

I bring the following to your attention to ensure that you are aware,

Section 336 of the Biosecurity Act 2014 states:

336 Obstructing designated officer

(1) A person must not obstruct a designated officer, or another person or a detection animal helping a designated officer, exercising a power under this Act unless the person has a reasonable excuse.

I require your truthful not misleading by co-mission or omission reply to the following questions in this serious matter:

a. Do you accept my reasonable excuse?
b. Will you place me on a DO NOT treat register and notify the field teams that my private property is not to be treated with fire ant bait?

Take further Notice that due to the extreme urgency of this matter, I require your personal written autographed truthful, not misleading by omission or commission full referenced answers and reply to be in my possession by close of your business on the 23 December 2024.

Take further Notice that should I not receive your such reply by close of business on Monday the 23rd of December 2024, I shall consider your tacit agreement to be the following:
A. Yes
B. Yes

I look forward to your truthful reply to be in my possession by close of business on Monday the 23rd of December 2024.
